A few days ago J. W. Webber's smoke house caught afire and was burned up, together with considerable meat that was being smoked. Mr. Webber had the hams and shoulders of several hogs in the smoke house, curing for his summer's meat, and Mrs. Cora White and Mrs. Minnie Knapp also had considerable meat in it. A good quantity of this was saved, but it is badly damaged by the fire, and it is said that it will soon turn bitter and be unfit for use.

A ROYAL TIME.

April 12th, 1896, being the thirtieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dye, they decided to celebrate the occasion by entertaining a few of their most intimate friends, and to say that they were royally entertained would be expressing our ideas very mildly. For all who know Mr. and Mrs. Dye and family, know that none surpass them in entertaining.

At 11 o'clock the guests began to assemble. By 11:30 about sixty had assembled. At 12 o'clock we repaired to the dining room, and such a dinner but few meet with during a long lifetime. A beautiful table, decorated with the choicest viands greeted us. After thoroughly satisfying the inner man, we were escorted to the parlor and Dr. Hull, of Stella, in a neat little speech, presented Mr. Dye with an elegant silver cornet, donated by his many friends; and in turn, the groom presented the bride with a lovely pearl necklace. Other valuable and handsome presents were given the bride and groom a complete list of which we are compelled to omit for lack of space.

Those present were Mesdames Seesley and Grant, Dr. and Mrs. Gaither, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bantz, Mr. and Mrs. S. Couer, of Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Minor, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Russel, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Webber, Mr. and Mrs. John Argabright, Mr. and Mrs. James Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. P. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. John Dressler, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawxby, Mesdames Anna Field and Davidson, Misses Rhoda Anderson, Florence Dye, Blanche Dye, Jesse Dye, Edith Dye and Miss Smelser; Dr. Hull and Messrs Evans and Bert Hall of Stella, and Messrs. Marshall Webb, C. G. Dye, Charlie Anderson, John Steuterville and Emery Dye.

After the presentation of the gifts, we were entertained by vocal music by Miss Florence Dye, entitled, "Home of my Childhood," and "The Nightingale." Also by Mr. and Mrs. Dye, assisted by Mrs. Minor, entitled "Lady of Beauty," and "Merry Bells." At 4 o'clock the "wedding bells" were still ringing, but we had to take leave of our host and hostess and make ready to migrate to the "land of paw paws." GAE.

Kerker & Hoover are going into the seed business on quite an extensive scale. They buy their seed by the pound of Mengesdorf Bros., of Atchison, Kansas, and as they are western fresh grown seed, they give the best satisfaction of any seed ever handled by this firm. Kerker & Hoover put the seed up in 5 cent packages, and the packages contain enough seed for as large a garden as an average editor would care to take care of. They also have a supply of pure Early Rose potatoes that they are selling at 50 cents per bushel.

CHARLEY TITUS IS DEAD.

Charles A. Titus died Sunday, April 12th, 1896, at 7 o'clock p. m., aged twenty-seven years, one month and eighteen days, at the home of his father, James A. Titus adjoining Nemaha. The deceased has suffered for over a year with heart disease. A few months ago dropsy set in, and for months he has been confined to his room. During this time, although suffering continually and most of the time unable to lie down on account of smothering, he remained cheerful, and seemed never to give up hopes of recovery until a few days previous to his death, when, we are informed, he called the dear ones into the room and bade them good-bye. Poor Charley! He was always energetic, full of ambition and plans for the future. He was a route agent in the employ of the Adams Express Company for some time previous to his sickness, and had bright prospects before him. It seems sad that one so full of ambition should be called away so early in life.

Charles A. Titus was born in Nemaha February 24th, 1869, and grew to manhood here. He was married September 7th, 1892, to Miss Lillie Culp. He leaves a little daughter, a loving wife, father and mother, sister and brothers to mourn his death. And may the loving Heavenly Father help them to bear this great affliction. The sympathy of the entire community go out to them.

The deceased had a wide acquaintance, not only in this county, but in Beatrice and Arcadia, where he lived after going into the service of the express company. The news of his death will cause sad hearts in many places.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church at 10 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World lodges of Stella, Howe and Shubert. The service was very beautiful and appropriate, and showed the fellowship and love his brother Woodmen bore him. Rev. E. S. Chamberlain preached the funeral sermon. The remains were laid at rest in the Nemaha cemetery.

For the finest line of shirt waists, go to A. H. Gilmore & Sons', Auburn.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

ATTENTION COMRADES.

G. W. Culp Post, Dept. of Neb., G. A. R., will give a supper Friday evening, April 24th, 1896. It is the intention of the committee to make it one of the most enjoyable evenings that we have ever had. A good program is being prepared—consisting of speaking by good speakers and recitations by the schools, also the song entitled "The Monroe Doctrine," to the tune of "Marching through Georgia." Speaking will begin at 7:30 p. m., after which supper will be served. Supper, 25 cents; children under 12 years, 15 cents. Everybody come and we will treat you well.

By order of the committee.
